Snetterton Combine

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,

We, the Snetterton Combine, welcome you here once again for the second of our Motor Cycling Meetings of 1955.

We have to-day the record entry of 178 individual drivers, some having already ridden here quite a number of times before and quite a number are racing for the first time on this circuit.

All classes, we are pleased to say, are full, and the Sidecar Class, I think, is a record.

There are several interesting machines here to-day but I leave that to our commentator, Murray Walker, to tell you all about them. We are pleased to welcome here to-day several overseas drivers: G. Dunlop of New Zealand, P. Thomas of Northern Rhodesia, D. Hagen of the U.S.A. and A. Lang from Australia.

Amongst the Solo Classes we have John Surtees, M. O'Rourke, the Hogan brothers, G. Tanner, F. Fox, only to mention a few.

In the Sidecar Classes we have Bill Boddice, John Beeton, E. Walker, the Taylors, and a host of new drivers to the circuit.

I would like to thank members of the Clubs, comprising the Snetterton Combine, the Officials, and everybody who has made this meeting possible and remind you we are always open to suggestions for improvements of future meetings.

Yours sincerely,

BOB HAVERS,
Hon. Sec., Snetterton Combine.
